What is Evidence?

Available now to high school-aged students, Prove it! – Introduction to Evidence is an interactive study of the rules that govern the types of information that can be used in court. To be admissible in court, information – evidence – must logically prove or disprove a matter in issue and must comply with a wide range of restrictions based on reliability concerns and public policy.

Among other topics, the course includes:

- Relevance
- Authentication
- Addresses many Virginia SOL requirements for U.S. Government
- Constraints
- Hearsay
- Best Evidence
- Procedure

Location: William & Mary Law School, Williamsburg, VA

Dates/Times: April Course*
Saturday, April 16th – Sunday, April 17th, (8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. both days)
(taught remotely* - student needs computer with access to internet, audio and video reception, and camera and microphone)

June Course: Friday, June 24th (1:30-6:00 p.m.) – Saturday, June 25th (8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.)

Cost: $190.00

Register: https://www.regonline/introtoevidence2016

Instructor: Fred Lederer, Chancellor Professor of Law and Director, Center for Legal & Court Technology, William & Mary Law School

Presented by: The Center for Legal and Court Technology, William & Mary Law School, in conjunction with the Center for Gifted and Talented Education, William & Mary School of Education

*This is an experimental interactive remote course. In the event of significant technical difficulties, tuition will be refunded to registered students, or they may register for the traditionally-taught version of the course offered June 24-25, 2016.

For additional information, please contact us at clct@wm.edu, 757-221-2494.