Introduction to Torts
For High School Age Students

When and why people can sue for personal injury: From automobile collisions to damage from consumer products.

This program will explore the basic foundation of the American tort law system. Through interactive class sessions and thought-provoking discussions, this course will help students understand the basic concepts of negligence and liability in the modern world.

- Emphasizes logical thinking and writing
- Introduces the fundamental elements of negligence, including duty, breach, causation, and damages
- Provides the opportunity for students to read, analyze, and apply case law to real-life situations

Location: William & Mary Law School, Williamsburg, VA
Dates/Times: Thursday, July 14th (1:00 – 5:30 p.m.)– Friday, July 15th, 2016 (8:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.)
Cost: $190.00
Register: https://www.regonline/intrototorts2016
Instructors: Fred Lederer, Chancellor Professor of Law and Director, Center for Legal & Court Technology, William & Mary Law School
Miranda Mayhill, Law Student and Graduate Research Fellow, William & Mary Law School, Class of 2018

Presented by: The Center for Legal and Court Technology, William & Mary Law School, in conjunction with the Center for Gifted and Talented Education, William & Mary School of Education

For additional information, please contact us at clct@wm.edu, 757-221-2494.