EPPL Comprehensive Examination Registration

You are eligible to take the comprehensive exam upon the completion of the EPPL core courses (EPPL 601, EPPL 602, EPPL 603, and EPPL 604) and all of the research courses required in your program, with the exception of EPPL 765 and EPPL 790. The comprehensive exam is to be taken within one year of completing these courses and typically would be in the fall of your third year. The comprehensive exam is in a take-home format and has two sections. The first portion evaluates your synthesis of the content of the core courses (EPPL 601-604), whereas the second portion evaluates your ability to apply your knowledge of the research process. Please note that you must be registered during the term in which you take the exam.
