Rabbit Syllable Division Pattern VC★CV

When two consonants stand between two vowels, divide between the consonants.

|
rabbit	hobbit	fatten
mitten	biggest	zipping
sudden	tunnel	buzzing

Rabbit Syllable Division Pattern VC★CV

When two consonants stand between two vowels, divide between the consonants.

|
rabbit	hobbit	fatten
mitten	biggest	zipping
sudden	tunnel	buzzing

Rabbit

Rabbit words are words with two syllables. They have two consonants between two vowels. vc*cv You can listen for each syllable. Write the first part. Write the second part. Then write the BIG word.

The rabbit went down the path. He was hopping.

I like to play tennis with mom and dad.

Can you see the biggest fish in the pond?

All of a sudden the hobbit got bitten.

The kitten is white as my mitten. It is the biggest kitten. It can purr. The kitten is smitten with me. It is ripping the cloth with its paws! Stop kitten! Stop!!

rabbit	biggest
fatten	hottest
muffin	bitten

flattest	mitten
tennis	kitten
hobbit	nugget

puppet	redden
skittish	smitten
sudden	tunnel

wedding	zipping
buzzing	ripping
getting	happen