What were some words and phrases that were especially interesting or important? What words were new to you?

What feelings did you have while reading this selection? What feelings did the characters have? How were those feelings expressed?

What was the main idea? What other major ideas and concepts were important? What was the author trying to say about those ideas?

What type of writing was this? What literary and style elements did the author use? How did the structure of the writing contribute to the meaning of the novel?

How did the author use description and imagery in the novel? What sensory images came to your mind? How did the author use symbols?