What is Arbitration and how does it differ from Litigation?

This intense course is aimed at high school and college students who are interested in exploring how commercial parties can resolve their disputes by way of arbitration rather than going to court. Topics covered include:

- What is arbitration and why is it becoming an ever more common way to resolve commercial disputes?
- The role and function of arbitrators and the challenges that they face
- The relationship between national courts and arbitral tribunals
- Opportunities for international arbitration

Location: William & Mary Law School, 613 S. Henry St., Williamsburg, VA

Dates/Times: Monday-Tuesday, July 23-24, 2018 (1:00-4:00 p.m.)

Cost: $150.00*

Register: https://www.regonline.com/introtoarbitration2018

Instructor: Iria Giuffrida, Visiting Assistant Professor of Law and Associate Director for Research at the Center for Legal and Court Technology, William & Mary Law School

Professor Giuffrida has a PhD in Law and, for nearly a decade, she has practiced in London as a commercial litigator in court and arbitration proceedings.

Presented by: The Center for Legal and Court Technology, The College of William & Mary Law School

*A limited number of need-based scholarships will be available. Please contact clct@wm.edu or call 757-221-2494 to learn more.

For additional information, please contact us at clct@wm.edu or 757-221-2494.