$170 for a guest of Osher member

Step into history with an afternoon of elegance and tradition. Join George Washington and his beloved wife, Martha, for a seated luncheon that captures the refinement and charm of 18th-century America.

Highlights include:

A personalized welcome and Virginia wine toast led by our first President and first First Lady

A specially curated, three-course, American-inspired lunch menu with Virginia wine

Live interactions with the Washingtons, offering historical insights and a sense of genuine Colonial hospitality.

Celebrate the spirit of early America in style, and create a memory that blends history, fine dining, and conviviality in a truly unique way.
