

Updates to the Fall 2026 Catalog (after printing) – as of August 20, 2026

CANCELLATIONS:

- Pg 16 - Hamilton: Man and Musical (Dan Sherman) – this class has been cancelled
- Pg 40 - Celebrating Sundials - Many Ways to Tell Time! (Dan Sherman) – this class has been cancelled
- Pg 46 - The Battle of Okinawa - Typhoon of Steel (Dennis Litalien) – this class has been cancelled

CHANGES to DATE – TIME - LOCATION:

- Pg 7 – Unexpected Challenges the Founders Failed to Predict (Rebecca Staton-Reinstein) – this class has been shortened to a 4-part class. The September 18th class will not be held. The course will instead begin on September 25 and continue through October 16. Day (Friday), time (9:30-11:30 am) and location (Zoom) remain the same.
- Pg 9 – The JFK Assassination – Part 1: The People in the Plaza (Mike Kerley) – W&M Alumni House location remains the same, but room is now Leadership Hall
- Pg 44 – The Dilemma of Ordinary People in Nazi Germany (David Wessel) – the class duration has been shortened to 90 minutes. The presentation start time remains 9:30 am, but ends at 11:00 am. NOTE: The instructor is open to remaining a few minutes after the 11:00 am end time for interested participants.

OTHER:

- Pg 21 – Generative AI Research Study Announcement (Yimeng Wang) – Page reference to view the full course description is on pg. 39 (not 47)
- Pg 32 – Spanish Conversation Table (Frauke Carlucci) – No class on Nov 3 – university is closed due to Election Day
- Pg 42 - The Amazing Human Body Takes a Walk (Wendy LeBolt) – course description should read: When you go for a walk, do you ever wonder how this happens? In this class, we will! Join us as we ask: How does our brain instruct our body? How do our muscles move us? How do we keep our balance and/or why do we fall? How do we fuel up for a hike or a stroll?