Favorite Novel Activity

- Personal Reflection
 - What is your favorite novel?
 - Why did you choose this novel?
 - What are some vivid experiences you had reading it?
- Stand Up, Hand Up, Pair Up
- Shout Out!
 - Write down what you heard people say about their novel.
 - What commonalities do you see?

Personal Experience

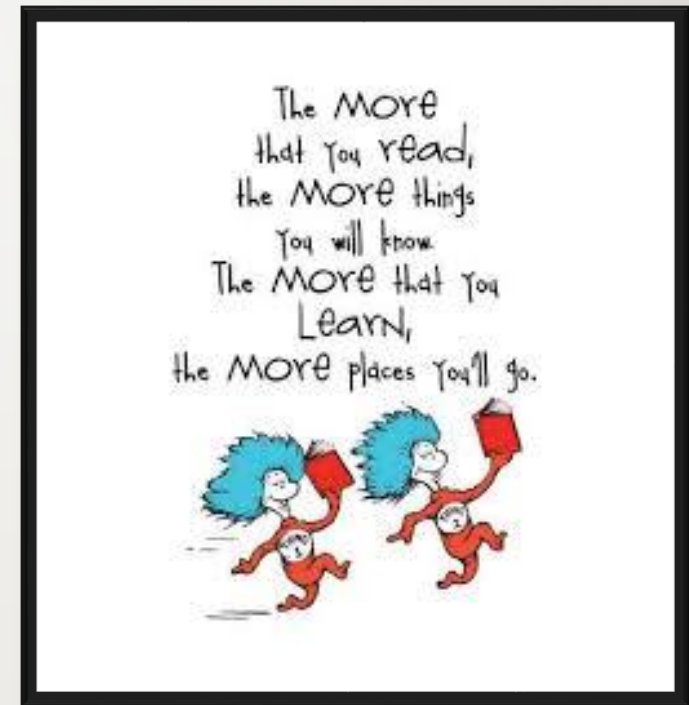

What I Learned

There is a story or poem to raise a goose bump on the toughest skin, and we are well advised to help each child find it. A child who has never thrilled to words will remain indifferent to reading and writing them. – Leisure Reading Task Force (2013-2014)

Research

- According to Leisure Reading Board Task Force (2013-2014) of the International Reading Association, leisure reading enhances students'
 - Reading comprehension
 - Language
 - Vocabulary development
 - General knowledge
 - Empathy for others
 - Self-confidence
 - Motivation to read throughout their lives, and positive attitudes toward reading.

- What it is...

- Self-selected reading
- Independent
- A wide range of texts
- Daily opportunities for leisure reading.
- Peer conversations and/or reflection.

- What it isn't...

- Assigned texts
- Used as formal assessment.
