

W&M TRIBE TEACHERS

Tribe Teachers is an initiative of the W&M School of Education that aims to support new teachers in the critical early years of their careers.

SUMMER PROGRAMMING

ALL EVENTS START AT 7PM. OPEN AND FREE TO ANYONE.

May 23 | TWITTER CHAT

Meet and Greet and Open Discussion on Teaching

June 6 | WEBINAR (REGISTER)

Creating A Professional Web Presence

Due to the proliferation of multiple social media platforms, teachers' lives are increasingly public. In Creating a Professional Web Presence, we'll explore strategies for creating or improving your professional web presence as a teacher.

June 20 | TWITTER CHAT

Creating A Professional Web Presence

July 11 | WEBINAR (REGISTER)

Using Engaging Communication Tools

Learn about communication tools you can use to engage your students in learning, and to connect families to your classroom.

July 25 | TWITTER CHAT

Using Engaging Communication Tools

August 8 | WEBINAR (REGISTER)

Classroom Organization

Learn tips and resources for designing your classroom space in ways that optimize student learning and reduce distractions.

August 22 | TWITTER CHAT

Classroom Organization

William & Mary
School of Education

CONTACT

Denise Johnson, Associate Dean for Teacher Education
& Community Engagement
W&M School of Education
cdjohn@wm.edu | 757-221-1528

@TribeTeachers