

Are your students having trouble learning and remembering critical content?

Content Enhancement Routines (CERs) are designed to help teachers think about, adapt, and present their critical content in a learner-friendly fashion.

CERs use powerful teaching devices to organize and present course information so that all students can understand, remember, and apply their learning.

• SIM Content Enhancement Routine Overview KU

• Content Enhancement Routine List and Summaries

• SIM TTAC William & Mary

• SIM University of Kansas

For more information on CERs contact Shelley Littleton sblittleton@wm.edu.