

VIRGINIA CENTER FOR INCLUSIVE COMMUNITIES

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities will be visiting the School of Education on the afternoon of Friday, December 2nd to offer an interactive workshop on Unconscious Bias in Schools. You are cordially invited to attend for end-of-semester pizza, professional development, and conversation!

Unconscious Bias in Schools: An Interactive Educator Workshop

Friday, December 2nd Dogwood Room 3:00pm-4:30pm

Space is limited. Please RSVP to attend!

The Virginia Center for Inclusive Communities is a thought-leader in promoting and facilitating conversations and workshops related to diversity and inclusion in K-12 schools. Last year, VCIC led over 1,000 events across Virginia.

RSVP Here

William & Mary School of Education

